

Give your employees peace of mind with our expert legal support — for less than $1 a day

We all need expert guidance from time to time. Sometimes it's planned, like buying a house or starting a family. And other times it's unexpected, like dealing with a traffic ticket or identity theft. With MetLaw®, a group legal plan available through Hyatt Legal Plans, your employees will have experienced attorneys on their side — for less than $1 per day.

Imagine...

- Jane, a working mom, ran late picking up her son from baseball practice.
- Hopping in her car, she drove too fast and got a ticket.
- She faced a huge fine and points on her license.

MetLife at her side

- With one call to MetLaw, Jane received contact information for four accredited, experienced attorneys.
- She was thankful that her attorney represented her in court, meaning she didn't miss her big presentation at work.

Making life a little easier

- Jane was relieved and reassured that a trusted attorney was there to support and guide her throughout the process.
- Later, she discovered a friend's attorney cost $338 per hour<sup>1</sup> and was delighted that her legal plan covered everything under her monthly premiums, so there were no bills.

MetLaw is like having a network of attorneys on retainer — for less than $1 per day.
